Chip Rogers Signs ATR Pledge

-- Representative Chip Rogers, now a Candidate for Georgia Senate Promises to Oppose Tax Increases --

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Americans for Tax Reform applauds the pro-taxpayer platform of Representative Chip Rogers, who is running for the 21st Senate seat in Georgia this year.

Representative Rogers recommitted himself to the taxpayers of Georgia by re-signing the Taxpayer Protection Pledge on April 10, 2004, after having signed it for the duration of his tenure in the Georgia House, where he is currently representing the voters of the 15th district. By signing the pledge, he promises “to oppose and vote against any and all efforts to increase taxes.”

As of today’s date, over 1220 state legislators have signed the Pledge. Nine governors, four lieutenant governors, two attorneys general, four secretaries of state, four treasurers, 216 U.S. representatives, 42 U.S. senators, and President George W. Bush have signed similar versions of the Taxpayer Protection Pledge.

“Chip Rogers is one of numerous lawmakers and candidates at the state and federal levels who have committed themselves to principles of limited government,” commented Grover Norquist, President of ATR.

“I applaud Representative Rogers for his commitment to the taxpayers of the 21st Senate district and all of the taxpayers of Georgia. I extend the invitation to sign the pledge to every candidate running for office, in the hopes that more elected officials will dedicate themselves to taxpayers, rather than tax-and-spending.”

ATR offers the Taxpayer Protection Pledge to all candidates seeking office at the state and federal levels, and also to sitting incumbents. To obtain a copy of the Pledge, or to learn more about it, please visit www.atr.org or call Paul Proski at (202) 785-0266.
