

NEWS

AMERICANS FOR TAX REFORM

1920 L Street, NW • Suite 200 • Washington, DC 20036
202.785.0266 • Fax 202.785.0261

WWW.ATR.ORG

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Paul Proski
Raymond T. Wotring
202-785-0266

07 JANUARY 2005

Media/Interview Alert:

Leading National Taxpayer Advocates to Oppose Tax Increases in Virginia

- Taxpayer Groups, Senators and Delegates to argue for revenue-neutral reform -

WASHINGTON – Americans for Tax Reform, the nation's leading taxpayer advocacy group, announced today that their president, Grover Norquist will appear with John Taylor, Senator Ken Cuccinelli, Senator Jay O'Brien, Delegate Scott Lingamfelter, Delegate Terrie Suit and others at a press conference in Richmond, Virginia.

The press conference will bring the renowned taxpayer protectionist and a host of others to Richmond to discuss legislative agendas for the upcoming General Assembly Session, with last year's budget battle still fresh on everyone's mind.

WHAT: Press Conference Regarding Legislation for the upcoming Virginia General Assembly Session.

WHERE: Virginia State Capitol
House Room Four, 1st Floor

WHEN: 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, January 11, 2005

WHO:

- Grover Norquist, President of Americans for Tax Reform
- John Taylor, President of the Virginia Institute for Public Policy
- State Sen. Ken Cuccinelli (R-Fairfax)
- Delegate Scott Lingamfelter (R-Prince William)
- Senator Jay O'Brien (R-Fairfax)
- Delegate Terrie Suit (R-Virginia Beach)
- Al Aitken, Chairman, Virginians Over-Taxed on Residences (VOTORS)

To schedule an interview, please contact Chris Butler at 202-785-0266.