Candidate For Senate Signs Taxpayer Protection Pledge

Duane Sand (R-North Dakota) signs the Taxpayer Protection Pledge

Washington, D.C. – Duane Sand, a Republican vying for North Dakota's open U.S. Senate seat, recently signed the Taxpayer Protection Pledge sponsored by Americans for Tax Reform (ATR). The Pledge commits signers to “oppose any and all efforts to increase the marginal income tax rates for individuals and/or businesses ... and oppose any net reduction or elimination of deductions and credits, unless matched dollar for dollar by further reducing tax rates.”

ATR has offered the Pledge to all candidates for federal office since 1987. To date, President George W. Bush, 42 U.S. senators and 215 members of the U.S. House of Representatives have signed the Pledge. Additionally, eight governors and 1,200 state legislators have also signed the Pledge.

“America needs leaders who are committed to protecting taxpayers, and signing our Pledge demonstrates that kind of leadership,” said Grover Norquist, president of Americans for Tax Reform.

“By signing the Pledge, Mr. Sand demonstrates allegiance to hard-working taxpayers nationwide, as well as dedication to taxpayers in his state. I applaud Mr. Sand for the leadership and dedication he showed by signing the Pledge.”

“I strongly encourage every candidate for federal and state elective office to sign the Pledge,” Norquist continued.

Copies of the Pledge are available at www.atr.org or by calling (202) 785-0266.

Americans for Tax Reform is a non-partisan coalition of taxpayers and taxpayer groups who oppose all tax increases. For further information, contact Chris Myers by phone or at Cmyers@atr.org
