POST-ELECTION INTERVIEW OPPORTUNITY

One will win and one will lose on November 2nd, but Americans for Tax Reform President Grover Norquist will be on call to discuss the conservative reaction to the final results and post-election plans either way. Mr. Norquist has been one of Washington's most effective strategists since founding Americans for Tax reform (ATR) in 1986. ATR is active in nearly every battle in Washington, D.C. that affects taxpayers, from Internet taxation to Death Taxes, to Capital Gains taxes and other taxes.

Straight talk from Grover Norquist....

“When the two parties fight, taxpayers find representation in the Republican Party. When the two parties agree, the result is almost always a political class united against everyday citizens’ interests...”
(The American Enterprise, March 2004)

“But outside state power, the Democratic coalition withers and dies. Without effective control of the government, the Democratic Party is like a fish out of water, a vampire in the sun, Antaeus held aloft, an appliance unplugged.” (Washington Monthly, Sept. 2004)

Grover Norquist is the perfect guest for post-election discussions.

Norquist's articles on election outcomes include:

- Article in the Washington Monthly: “The Democratic Party is Toast”:

- Article in the American Spectator: “The Second Term Diet”:

Harvard-educated and street-smartened by years as a Washington DC conservative activist, Norquist is your show's ultimate guest for post-election discussions. His bio can be found at <http://www.atr.org/staff> and you can find more information about his organization, Americans for Tax Reform, at www.atr.org.
