John Campbell Signs ATR Pledge

-- Candidate for California Senate Promises to Oppose Tax Increases --

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Americans for Tax Reform applauds the pro-taxpayer platform of Assemblyman John Campbell. He is running for the 35th Senate seat in California.

Mr. Campbell demonstrated his dedication to the taxpayers of California by re-signing the Taxpayer Protection Pledge on February 27, 2004. By signing the pledge, he promises “to oppose and vote against any and all efforts to increase taxes.”

Mr. Campbell is currently a member of the California Assembly, where he is a Pledge signer, and he is the Chair of the Assembly’s Taxpayer Protection Caucus – a group that takes the lead in opposition to tax increases.

As of today’s date, over 1220 state legislators have signed the Pledge. Nine governors, four lieutenant governors, two attorneys general, four secretaries of state, four treasurers, 217 U.S. representatives, 42 U.S. senators, and President George W. Bush have signed similar versions of the Taxpayer Protection Pledge.

“John Campbell joins numerous lawmakers and candidates at the state and federal levels who have committed themselves to principles of limited government,” commented Grover Norquist, President of ATR.

“I applaud Mr. Campbell for his commitment to the taxpayers of the 35th Senate district and all of the taxpayers of California. I extend the invitation to sign the pledge to every candidate running for office, in the hopes that more elected officials will dedicate themselves to taxpayers, rather than to taxing-and-spending.”

ATR offers the Taxpayer Protection Pledge to all candidates seeking office at the state and federal levels, and also to sitting incumbents. To obtain a copy of the Pledge, or to learn more about it, please visit www.ATR.org or call Paul Proski at (202) 785-0266.
