Russell Treadwell Signs ATR Pledge

-- Candidate for Maine Senate Promises to Oppose Tax Increases --

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Americans for Tax Reform applauds the pro-taxpayer platform of Rep Russell Treadwell. He is running for the 33rd Senate seat in Maine.

Rep. Treadwell is already a Pledge signer as a member of the Maine House. He first demonstrated his dedication to the taxpayers of Maine by signing the Taxpayer Protection Pledge in 1997. Now running for the Senate, he re-committed himself by signing the Pledge on February 20. By signing the pledge, he promises “to oppose and vote against any and all efforts to increase taxes.”

As of today’s date, over 1220 state legislators have signed the Pledge. Nine governors, four lieutenant governors, two attorneys general, four secretaries of state, four treasurers, 217 U.S. representatives, 42 U.S. senators, and President George W. Bush have signed similar versions of the Taxpayer Protection Pledge.

“Russell Treadwell joins numerous lawmakers and candidates at the state and federal levels who have committed themselves to principles of limited government,” commented Grover Norquist, President of ATR.

“I applaud Rep. Treadwell for his commitment to the taxpayers of the 33rd Senate district and all of the taxpayers of Maine. I extend the invitation to sign the pledge to every candidate running for office, in the hopes that more elected officials will dedicate themselves to taxpayers, rather than tax-and-spending.”

ATR offers the Taxpayer Protection Pledge to all candidates seeking office at the state and federal levels, and also to sitting incumbents. To obtain a copy of the Pledge, or to learn more about it, please visit www.ATR.org or call Paul Proski at (202) 785-0266.
