Ratings Alert:

AMERICANS FOR TAX REFORM WILL RATE ATTEMPTS TO STRIKE TAX CUTS FROM RECONCILLATION

Opponents of tax cuts are attempting to strike the ability of the U.S. Senate to vote for tax cuts through the Budget Reconciliation process while proposing higher spending. The tax cuts are working and any attempt to strike the provisions will be rated. A vote to strike tax cuts from Reconciliation is a vote to:

1. Reinstate 3.5 million low-income Americans back on the tax rolls;
2. Raise taxes on 94 million taxpayers by an average of $538;
3. Raise taxes on 46 million married couples by an average of $906 in taxes;
4. Raise taxes on 38 million families with children by an average of $902;
5. Raise taxes on 8 million single women with children by an average of $368; and
