Trace Chesser Signs No-New-Taxes Pledge

-- Candidate for Kentucky House Promises to Oppose Tax Increases --

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Americans for Tax Reform applauds the pro-taxpayer platform of candidate Trace Chesser. He is running for the 46th House seat in Kentucky.

Mr. Chesser demonstrated his dedication to the taxpayers of Kentucky by signing the Taxpayer Protection Pledge. By doing so, Chesser promises “to oppose and vote against any and all efforts to increase taxes.”

As of today’s date, over 1290 state legislators have signed the Pledge. Eight governors, four lieutenant governors, two attorneys general, four secretaries of state, four treasurers, 217 U.S. representatives, 42 U.S. senators, and President George W. Bush have signed similar versions of the Taxpayer Protection Pledge.

“Trace Chesser joins numerous lawmakers and candidates at the state and federal levels who have committed themselves to principles of limited government,” commented Grover Norquist, President of Americans for Tax Reform.

“I applaud Mr. Chesser for his commitment to the taxpayers of the 46th House district and all of the taxpayers of Kentucky. I extend the invitation to sign the pledge to every candidate running for office, in the hopes that more elected officials will dedicate themselves to taxpayers, rather than tax-and-spending.”

ATR offers the Taxpayer Protection Pledge to all candidates seeking office at the state and federal levels, and also to sitting incumbents. To obtain a copy of the Pledge, or to learn more about it, please visit www.ATR.org or call Paul Proski at (202) 785-0266.

Americans for Tax Reform is a non-partisan coalition of taxpayers and taxpayer groups who oppose all tax increases. For more information or to arrange an interview please contact Chris Butler at (202) 785-0266 or by email at cbutler@atr.org.
