Taxpayer Advocates Gather to Oppose the Alabama Natural Gas Tax Hike

Local and national advocates to appear on Capitol Steps

WASHINGTON – Americans for Tax Reform, the nation's leading taxpayer advocacy group, announced today that State Government Affairs Manager, Karri Bragg, will appear with local and national activists at a rally in Montgomery.

The press conference will highlight the negative effects of the proposed tax increase on natural gas wells. If passed, the $200 million tax hike would drive up the cost of energy in the state, hurting taxpayers and businesses alike.
