Congressional Candidate Signs Taxpayer Protection Pledge

Nathan Tabor (R-N.C.) signs the Taxpayer Protection Pledge

Washington, D.C. – Nathan Tabor, a Republican vying for North Carolina's 5th Congressional District seat, recently signed the Taxpayer Protection Pledge sponsored by Americans for Tax Reform (ATR). The Pledge commits signers to "oppose any and all efforts to increase the marginal income tax rates for individuals and/or businesses ... and oppose any net reduction or elimination of deductions and credits, unless matched dollar for dollar by further reducing tax rates."

ATR has offered the Pledge to all candidates for federal office since 1987. To date, President George W. Bush, 41 U.S. senators, and 217 members of the U.S. House of Representatives (seven of whom represent North Carolina) have signed the Pledge. Additionally, eight Governors and over 1,190 state legislators have signed the Pledge as well.

"America needs leaders who are committed to protecting taxpayers, and signing our Pledge demonstrates that kind of leadership," said Grover Norquist, president of Americans for Tax Reform.

"By signing the Pledge, Mr. Tabor demonstrates allegiance to hard-working taxpayers nationwide, as well as dedication to taxpayers in North Carolina. I applaud Mr. Tabor for the leadership and dedication he showed by signing the Pledge."

"I strongly encourage every candidate for federal and state elective office to sign the Pledge," Norquist continued.

Copies of the Pledge are available at www.ATR.org or by calling (202) 785-0266.

Americans for Tax Reform is a non-partisan coalition of taxpayers and taxpayer groups who oppose all tax increases. For further information, contact Lindsey Mikal by phone or at lmikal@atr.org.
