Congressional Candidate Signs Taxpayer Protection Pledge

Patricia Lightner (R-KS) signs the Taxpayer Protection Pledge

Washington, D.C. – Patricia Lightner, a Republican vying for Kansas' 3rd Congressional District seat, signed the Taxpayer Protection Pledge sponsored by Americans for Tax Reform (ATR). The Pledge commits signers to “oppose any and all efforts to increase the marginal income tax rates for individuals and/or businesses ... and oppose any net reduction or elimination of deductions and credits, unless matched dollar for dollar by further reducing tax rates.”

ATR has offered the Pledge to all candidates for federal office since 1987. To date, President George W. Bush, 41 U.S. senators (including Pat Roberts and Sam Brownback), and 217 members of the U.S. House of Representatives (three of whom represent Kansas) have signed the Pledge. Additionally, eight Governors and over 1,190 state legislators have signed the Pledge as well.

“America needs leaders who are committed to protecting taxpayers, and signing our Pledge demonstrates that kind of leadership,” said Grover Norquist, president of Americans for Tax Reform.

“By signing the Pledge, Ms. Lightner demonstrates allegiance to hard-working taxpayers nationwide, as well as dedication to taxpayers in Kansas. I applaud Ms. Lightner for the leadership and dedication she has shown by signing the Pledge.”

“I strongly encourage every candidate for federal and state elective office to sign the Pledge,” Norquist continued.

Copies of the Pledge are available at www.ATR.org or by calling (202) 785-0266.
